Reading Log #4

Read with your child!

Children who have a love of books and stories are more ready and willing to learn how to read later on. Make books a part of your life! Keep books in the car, in the stroller, diaper bag and all over the house.

Write with your child! Random marks are your child's first attempts at writing letters and words. Play writing games! Let your child practice writing letters in shaving cream, sand, and other hands-on materials so they can literally feel the shapes of letters.
