Confidentiality Act

California law (Gov't Code, Section 6267) prohibits libraries or library staff from providing any information about library patrons other than to the individual patron. This includes whether or not a person is registered as a patron; what materials, if any, a patron has checked out; what materials, if any, might be overdue on a patron's card, and what fines, if any, a patron may owe.

Get a Library Card

The Thousand Oaks Library requires a photo I.D. (D.L. or photo I.D. card) and proof of current residence to obtain a library card.

If your current residence is not on your photo I.D., examples of acceptable proof are:
- Current vehicle registration
- Current temporary driver's license
- Current rent receipt
- Recent (60 days) utility bill
- Current property tax bill
- Current (60 days) credit card bill

NOTE: A hand-written address on the back of a D.L. is not acceptable. A Post Office box is acceptable, however a 5-item limit applies.

Your library card is not transferable. Only you may use it.

Lost or Stolen Library Cards:

If a library card is lost, or there is a change in address, please notify us immediately. A $2 replacement fee will be charged to replace a lost or damaged library card.

Loan Periods & Fees:

The loan period for most materials is four weeks. Exceptions include Adult New Books (2 weeks), Children’s Holiday books (2 weeks) and DVDs/Blu-rays (3 days to 2 weeks depending on item).

Thousand Oaks Library does not charge overdue fines. This ensures that our library lives up to its commitment to inspire, inform and engage our community.

There is an overall limit of 10 holds and 50 items checked out per account.

Patrons remain responsible for fees charged for lost or damaged items. Items not returned within 30 days of their due date will go to lost status and customers will be billed for the item’s replacement cost plus a $3 processing fee. Any fee amount over $1 can be paid online at:
