American Radio Archives

Garrett Starmer Collection

Garrett Starmer (1915-2003) was a professional actor for a short time, and spent much of his career as a professor of speech and drama at various colleges and universities in California. With fellow faculty members John Sutthoff and George Rogers he secured the licenses for an both an educational television station (now KIXE-PBS) and KCHO radio in the name of California State University, Chico.

This collection contains radio scripts that he collected in the course of his career, mostly documentaries and radio plays originating from the Writers' War Board.
