Calling all Cars Collection (Charles S. Jones)

Scope of the Collection: 273 16-inch transcription discs:
269 Calling all Cars transcription discs 1934-1939.
4 discs from other sources: 2 discs from a Dwight D. Eisenhower speech, 1953,
1 discs of "president's speech" undated, and one disc of the Richfield Show.

Charles S. Jones (1895-1970) was a businessman, and the head of Rio Grande Oil, which sponsored the radio program Calling all Cars. Jones was also a personal friend of Dwight D. Eisenhower. The transcriptions came to Jones in his capacity as sponsor of the program.

Calling all Cars ran on CBS on the West Coast only, from 1933 to 1939, it was sponsored by Rio Grande during its entire run. The program listed no cast credits, and was one of the earliest police shows on radio. Like Dragnet, it took true crime stories, and used them as the basis for the plots.

With the transcription discs are pages from an "Electrical Transcription Library Notebook" which are typed synopses or "squibs" of episodes on 3 ¾ x 6 inch pages. These do not exist for every episode, we have the following:

pp. 22-26, 39-53, 60-68, 72-86, 91-117, 132-135, 141-143, 150-158, 164-166, 168-169, 177-178, which cover the dates January 1, 1935 to September 26, 1939. Episodes 58-303.

Occasionally, the synopses mention the name of a guest for the evening
